Local Church Women's Ministries

Commitment to Women's Ministries

Clarification

Service Commitment

The Service Commitment section of the report includes a wide variety of ministries for women in the local church. Whenever women participate in these ministries during designated dates, the activities should be reported.

1. PRAYER MINISTRY: Ongoing prayer emphasis.
2. LITERATURE TRANSLATION: Contributed financial support to translate, publish and distribute International Women's Ministries and Women's Discipleship resources.
3. OUTREACH/SERVANT EVANGELISM (Visitation Ministry): Ministry to local community: shut-in, hospital, nursing home, assisted living, etc.
4. SPIRITUAL GROWTH EMPHASIS: Provided opportunity for women to grow spiritually. (Retreat, women's revival, seminars, etc.)
5. COVENANT SISTER: Contributed financial assistance this reporting period.
6. BIBLE STUDY: Ongoing opportunity for Bible study in group setting.
7. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING: Involved in active discipleship training within the church.
8. BENEVOLENCE: Contributed financial assistance to the Smoky Mountain Children's Home or other Church of God sponsored children's home.
9. WWAM MISSIONS PROJECT: Contributed financial support to International Women's Ministries World Missions Project—Women With A Mission (WWAM).
10. LOCAL CHURCH/HOME MISSIONS ASSISTANCE: Contributed financial support to the local church and/or state home missions project. (In-state program at the discretion of state/regional director and state Women's Ministries Board.)

Stewardship Commitment

1. BENEVOLENCE: Mother's Day is a special time to contribute to the Smoky Mountain Children's Home or state-sponsored children's home. This offering should be mailed to the state/regional office. Special offerings for benevolence may be raised and reported during any reporting period of the year and indicated as "Special Offerings."
2. WWAM MISSIONS PROJECT: A designated mission challenge adopted and promoted by the International Women's Ministries Advisory Council. Each WWAM (Women With A Mission) project is a two-year opportunity to share the Good News around the world.
3. LITERATURE TRANSLATION/PUBLICATION/DISTRIBUTION (Women's Ministries International Heritage Day, October 6): During observance of Heritage Day, offerings are received for the translation, publication and distribution of Women's Ministries resources. Heritage Day may be observed anytime during the year. Monies should be submitted with the state/regional office online report for proper credit.
4. COVENANT SISTERS: Our mission state sisters count on your support. In September and March of each calendar year we place special emphasis on support to our mission Covenant Sister states/regions. Please consider giving!
5. HOME MISSIONS: Each state/region can adopt or design their own specific project to assist new or needy churches, etc., within their own area.

REMARKS

1. Comments directed to the state/regional Women's Ministries office may be written on a separate sheet.
2. Please list the name and complete address of the current Women's Ministries Coordinator and secretary so that they may be contacted by the state/regional Women's Ministries office.
3. Complete and mail report to the state/regional office postmarked by the 5th of the month for the previous months activities. Keep a duplicate copy for your records.
